

Shirebiz Bulletin 7th September 2020

Heathcote Road Bridge

Transport for NSW will close the narrow bridge over Woronora River on Heathcote Road, Engadine to deliver needed safety improvement works. They will deliver road lane widening works and improvements to the bridge approaches. See report following community engagement. Transport for NSW has dismissed calls to duplicate the Heathcote Road bridge over Woronora River, and is pushing ahead with plans to widen the existing lanes.

Lee Evans rejects Heathcote Road bridge report and calls for minister to intervene

Heathcote MP Lee Evans has rejected the community engagement report on the Heathcote Road bridge upgrade and is appealing to Transport Minister Andrew Constance to intervene. Mr Evans, a government MP, said there was "overwhelming support" for a four-lane crossing. "I strongly dispute the interpretation of Transport for NSW's community engagement report,"

Phasing out gas would benefit Australian manufacturers and households

According to the Australian Industry (AI) Group's budget submission, "Ramping up support for manufacturers to transition from gas to electricity – from gas boilers to heat pumps – would both cut costs and allow them to lower emissions with onsite or offsite renewables."

Government releases voluntary Code of Practice for IoT cyber security

Defence Minister Linda Reynolds and Minister for Home Affairs Peter Dutton have released a voluntary Code of Practice to improve the security of the internet of things (IoT) in Australia – including everyday devices such as smart fridges, smart televisions, baby monitors and security cameras.

5 Tips to help protect your digital privacy

For Windows 10 users unlock your computer, control which apps access your phone, use strong passwords, manage the privacy options and help ensure your PC gets the latest update. In detail.

NSW Small Business week -free webinars

After what has been and continues to be, a challenging year, Sutherland Shire Council will be hosting a series of free webinars to assist you reboot your business. As part of Small Business Month in October, we have 3 inspiring speakers who will help you futureproof your business, provide the latest information on digital marketing and explain the latest technology trends for the path ahead.

New York City Economic Development Corporation Update

All In NYC is a campaign to revitalize New York City—to show New Yorkers and the world that as they re-emerge, rebuild, and reopen, that the city's businesses, communities, and individuals can work together to make NYC even stronger and more equitable than before.

Opportunities with Lockheed Martin

Lockheed Martin Australia, Missiles and Fire Control (MFC) business area is taking a 'whole of business' portfolio approach to industry, potentially offering a longer-term pipeline for potential partners that can deliver world class Australian capabilities and demonstrate value-

for-money

Energy Magazine now on line

The September edition of Energy magazine is now online. In this issue, they dive into the impact of the long-awaited 2020 Integrated System Plan, and the hope that it brings for a workable energy policy. The roles that wind and community batteries are playing in the Australia's renewable energy landscape are also examined, plus much more.

Australian Centre for Robotic Vision Newsletter

Cyber attack crashes New Zealand stock exchange for fourth day in a row

Should you know (or care) how your data is being used before you consent?

An economic story of Sydney and its five districts: SADIG News

Business Bytes & Insights