NSW Government Going Global Campaign

The Going Global Program sits at the heart of the Global NSW Strategy. Global NSW positions Sydney and NSW as Australia's global centre of excellence, bringing together the expertise of our people representing industry and innovation, trade and investment, and precinct development. Global NSW is a government-wide plan to grow and build upon our prosperity.

Hype or Holy Grail: What is driving the world's Hydrogen rush?

Hydrogen – which burns cleanly and emits only water – has been climbing towards the top of the decarbonisation agenda. In the past several months, governments, resource companies and large Asian energy users have been raising their bets on the fuel's future and bankrolling pilot projects across Australia. Several of these are taking shape in Bell Bay, where Origin Energy, Woodside Petroleum and Fortescue Metals Group are each lining up to pursue plans for large-scale “green” hydrogen facilities. By some counts, more than $150 billion of green hydrogen projects were announced worldwide in 2020.
